ложь об СССР. Он должен был вести параллель между «ужасами Чека» и «социал-демократическим режимом германских тюрем». Увы, это оказалось далеко не в пользу последних.

Когда германские рабочие пожелали побеседовать с новобранцами в от-сутствии начальства, начальство уда-лилось.

Когда бельгийские делегаты присту-

Артемовске, администрация оставила их с глазу на глаз.

Короче говоря, ничто и никто не мешает рабочим делегациям изучать СССР таким, каков он есть в действительности. И они изучают его отнюдь не поверхностно. Они отнюдь не собираются верить кому бы то ни было на слово, как не поверили социал-демократическим вождям в их клевету на СССР.

Повторять все заявления всех деле-гаций — те, которые они делали пе-ред отъездом в СССР и у себя дома, по возвращении — излишне. Всем они известны. Они сводятся к двум основ-ным моментам. Во-первых, — социалдемократические вожди лгут. Во-вторых, СССР — пример именно того, как революцию делать должно.

Дальше в лес — больше дров. Чине спроста. На свете есть зарадитель-

Home - Friday.

Dear Kirby:-

all fairly well, weather cold & bad last 3 or 4 days.

Everyone Reeps family busy most of the time - chickens doing good as could be expected.

Selling the chicks as fast as can hatch them - all sold ahead now until May. Getting about 80 a day now - Eggs - and Mother around 100 - She got 220 dozen and 10 during Feb. - We got 170 dozen and 8.

Feb shows my feed Bill Total  $30^{10}$ sold eggs & chicks during Feb - "  $90^{20}$ profit of  $60^{10}$  January of course was not started yet hardly - Profit  $3^{50}$

Think we will do pretty good from now on - So our Best anyway.

Ordered 2 cases of wine - Come today -

Have posts already in - Another large yard for about 200 or 250 hens for next year - Putting it south of mine & south of Mother's garden, all the way across - Already wire there & down one side besides.

Then soon as get money, Chicken house to build, about  $12 \times 40$  -

Always something for the money to go on - We had to have shoes, socks, underwear ect. Soon have to have battery for car & 1 casing - oh well.

Mr & Mrs. Stubeer drove up Sat. night & spent Sunday with us - Sure enjoyed having them. Play quite a bit of 42 these days - Still lucky as ever.

We will try Radio this P.M. for you.
Hope all are well & OK. Write a little oftener. Love to all, from us all, P.S.

both trying to work theirselow to death looks like

Oed man Crouly & stubborn as ever, maybe worse.

Hard on Mother - In fact she has no business on a place like this at all - just waiting herself to death. Her and Edith dont agree - Never will. on nothing it seems - Hard on them both & not so easy on me.

This dump below here enough to give everyone P- fever. Sometimes smells awful everyday - Sometimes 2 or 3 times a week - Nothing we can do.

Dont mention these things in letter just make bad matters worse.

Merely telling you how things are - Great life if you dont weaken.

I weigh around 129 and Edith 104
I lost nearly 20 and Lee 10.

Drew my last 4<sup>00</sup> from bank

Friday - Will have some hens to sell which we are culling out - That & eggs will keep fed bill going I guess -

No - Not asking for money - Don't want you to send us anymore - Too much in debt now -

Not leaving here either until I get you paid up anyway. Unless things get so bad can't be helped - Time alone will tell that.

Its all a big mistake though for any couple to live with their folks.

Edith not Lippy - Poor kid - What can I do - Remember - Mums the word.
Will do my best - Write often - Love - J. L.

Tuesday Am.

Dear Libby:-

Your good letter received yesterday, Thanks - always glad to hear from either of you.

All well, weather awful hot - Everything just about burnt up - Long time without rain until last night - Had a good one - Hope garden stuff will come through.

Crops and gardens as a whole very poor this year. Eggs have been down to 15 and even 12 1/2 lost 2 months - awful.

Going up a little this week - Chick won't sell during June-July & August - So not much coming in,
Have about 175 chicks myself 3 weeks old - & 165 2 days old. Feeding 140 hens & about 18 roosters & 70 pullets - more pullets from mother

soon Did good Feb - March & April 60<sup>00</sup> 71<sup>00</sup> and 72<sup>00</sup> for these months Clear. Last month cleared about 4<sup>00</sup> This month wont break even -

Garden bringing a little - not much though.

Spent 40<sup>00</sup> on new house you see, and wine etc, besides. Can't to keep up & our expense & there it goes - Nothing from Leok in several months. Hoping he will come across - Wont to send you 100<sup>00</sup> this fall anyway if we can - If he dont come through Dont know where it is coming from.

Feed is away up - sky high & eggs cheap - There you are.
Not kicking just telling you how things are - Mother and me. Murray

Wed June 1st

Dear Children, I rec'd
a letter from each of you yesterday.
sure glad to get them; that is some house
you are buying; its better to save up for twenty years than never to try,
of course you will loose some time with tenants, they will be changing;
all well here, Perry & Edith got to go to Gal - & Houston with a couple from here, got back Mon night, gone again to day to fish at a lake fifteen miles may come back to merron, pretty hard on me to do every thing, but I manage to do so, as neither one of you spoke of jelly, I guess it was all washed up, or never got there at all, not much loss, if it did, a good way is to put in some Certs, melt it up together

you had from Lige but she said nothing about food

& put in glasses, we are still eating a few strawberries, & picked blackberries & day, the biggers are biting me
we are getting the June heat, & drought ahead of time; ice back to 60 cts or our delivery out our way.

the Christian Preacher, & wife called this one, & were asking about you people, he has heard you feel they came to see P & E — but they were gone, I suppose by then time you get over the moon
you will be starting on your trip we had a great surprise last week, Mr & Mrs Newman, & Johnny came up, staid over one day, long as they could stand it, here two nights; it's mine, & hard to turn all the eggs. so much love to all from Mother

Sat night, June 11 —

Dear People, over all

Summer is here in full force seems like I can hardly stand it Edith keeps her door shut all the time & you know how hot the house is there, one good thing they have been away most every day for 2 week, three trips fishing, soons as they gone I open the door, they brought us fish enough for supper twice, I guess you are feeling fine in the new place, hope you will be satisfied there, I thought you were I have two months for your trip
we have ripe cantaloupes, but the hot sun is killing the vines, we had strawberries in five months this year last week in Feb - to first in June the rabbits are masting lots of the

to matoes; beets, & every thing, I have ordered some fine poultry wire, thirty inches high to put around the garden here by the house, & there are more rats than I ever saw, we keep fine traps setting, put out poison, & still they come, can't get a cat any where, think I will advertise.
maybe I will get to sew some more,
need clothes the most way, we use to do any more garden work for a good while, only to keep the road sand.
what do you think of the old woman wearing gay things, like there green is to wear at home, other two of a Church, have only made one dress since you were here, hope all goes well with you Love from Mother

Thurs - King Dear

your message rec'd. Murry absolutely refuses to build anywhere gets mad ever time it is mentioned but we have found three acres - on Guffin. Macozdokes high way fine room house, painted outside ready for paper in - we get mail ice & phone at door; <sup>little</sup> spring branch running across, well in yard.

the worst feature, there is a store just in front across high way Murry likes that, its  $4\frac{1}{2}$  miles north of Guffin. stage line also, every few hours. its the very best I can do Dear. who not be mad at me. M & P going in now to close deal five hundred cash, for years for balance, five twelve hundred & fifty;

I have tried every thing, this is the best we can do, no use to try to do any thing with murry, we have two hundred & mark out, no use for you & other, we will make of five love in haste.

Mother

Monday night.

Kirby Dear, we have been all over every where again a day - house hunting, nothing but old tumble down houses, land soful big too, so we will rent a house in Suffin for the present may get one between here & there I started packing this eve, and doing famously, got one very hysterical spells; Murray is doing splendidly, but refuses to build any where, so there, no use for you to send any thing at all now & listen to me once in your life I will not receive any thing.
you send it's no use to do it.

I love, & thank you for all your goodness to us, God will reward you, I never can, P is fairly cheerful Edith will say nothing Love to all
Mother

Wednesday 28.

Daddy Darling:

Yes, we survived the Christmas dinner and the others succeeding, but we took "precautions". Glad your visit with Reine was so pleasing. Amy says she heard Reine was to speak the coming Sunday at the Community church here, on trial. We may go in to take a look at him if that is so.

The youngsters are having a grand and glorious time of it. Had roasted "Muckies" yesterday and today. We are going to see a childrens play tomorrow morning. Elliotts are going too.

Masie came last evening and is working today & tomorrow. We surely were glad to see her. She is looking very well indeed.

Am enclosing a letter from your mother. In another letter just before that she says that Leo is moving back to Houston. They were dissatisfied and not well. The radio had been working well for her. Had a letter from Perry today saying the check was very much appreciated and had come just at the right time.

Army seems to be feeling somewhat better. Hope she continues.

Have written a lot of checks and paid bills until I am almost sick with writers cramp. Have written a couple of letters also.

Heaps & heaps & heaps & heaps of love from Your own Alma.

Monday Noon-

Dear Kirby:-

Weather hot, lots of rain, prices low on everything and scraping to make ends meet.

Everyone fussing - including me - a big scrap just finished. (I hope so).

Honest - Continuing last letter I don't know what to do - Getting unbearable - absolutely so -

Edith and Mother just don't get along & never will - Mother now says we are not doing our part & never have. Her & Mr. Murry seem to think that it costs them more when we are here than before - -over-

Both of them trying to kill themselves Working it seems - And are the U.S.A. couldn't stop either.

They have no business on a place like this at their age - and doing the work they do - Mother for sure.

And this dump here enough to kill all hands -

I love Mother, but believe me I love Edick to, and I going to give her a square deal if I can - just like a prison here for her for 17 months now - And trouble is that it is getting worse each day.

Mother wrote Leah that we were more dissatisfied every time. Stubbs came up - Norma of course had to tell Mrs. Stubbs - now doubtful if they will ever come here again.

In other words Mother seems to be trying to cause all trouble she can regarding what few friends we have.

She don't like them - She don't like Edith - So there you are - Floss went on a little longer - Mother just came in & told Edith <sup>(Edith)</sup> She had been trying to cause trouble so as to get away from here - (which is not so. I ought to know)

Told her she never offered to do anything - Talking about gardens etc and heavy work also - Mother won't let her wash dishes or do anything hardly - treats her like a little girl and as if she don't know how to do anything. Just said if we didn't like everything we could get out - They want us to stay & be here seemingly, but claim would be better off without us -

Oh we had it around here a few minutes. Nothing seems to be done but get things in shape & pull out & get busy at Something somewhere.

Have spent 17 months working here, Owe you 750<sup>00</sup> I believe & have spent 235<sup>00</sup> Lett paid us in last 17 months - Not very profitable Is it?

Another thing I just learned a short time ago - If I only knew could have saved everyone lots of misery -

That is that you & Mother talked to Edith alone regarding coming here, (and said nothing to me) and persuaded her that she should & that is was her duty - when

She knew & I guess you & Mother knew she did not want to come.

Otherwise why would she have been crying that day with you two.

Mother says guess you will tell Kirby and I says yes indeed - She says I'm afraid to tell him everything - afraid he would come down - Well I says I wish to goodness he was here - Maybe we could get this thing straightened out.

Looks impossible to leave, but worse
to stay so what are we going to do.

Says she is treated with contempt - and can't stand it that she's going to lose her own house etc - and we can get out if we don't like it - I told her we would soon as could get things straightened out.

Will you be anywhere near Texas in the next month - if so for the love of everything, grab 1 or 2 days off and come down -

For honor they have no business keeping on working hard & no joy or pleasure in life.

Mr. Murr about down in the back & Mother's feet sore, swelled, and about give out on her.

God knows what we will do I dont - But cant very well stay on here much longer as things are and they wont get better.

Write me at once - Is there any possible way in the world we could get her away somewhere where she could rest, not work so hard & be at peace with everyone.

Love to all - Write soon now - Wont do anything until I hear from you, Your Brother, P.D.

Feb 3rd

Dear Kirby & Alma

We are having real Spring weather, too good to last, cloudy & warm most all the time, every one predicting a blizzard soon.

Kirby your letter from Chi reached me. I have been lazy about writing but I just cannot concentrate when the Radio is going, & Perry surely does enjoy it. We heard an Indian chief sing, <sup>his name</sup> Tecumseh, young & educated, very fine singer, the big incubator is hatching, last night I got up at this to see about it, turned on the Radio, & got Don Francisco's plane, Deconover stay up late enough to get Calif. we got WJZ through Pittsburg but the landrook comes in at the same I place <sup>as or 2 or 3</sup> & so loud too, we can't hear B. & E. are out tonight over at Chase's I have twenty eight day eggs for tomorrow trade, in June I got 1.20 doz. It keeps us busy feeding & cleaning for chickens tell the children we are all broken up, old Kate is dead, she got so she would not eat, so M. called the vet, but he did no good now M. has to hunt for another horse to use, he will have to be gentle, so they may still ride where they care, & say, when will it be, Lily are you going to Europe this year. four ladies came in to day to see about buying little chicks they saw your picture, the last one Kirk. oh; who is that. they said now I must turn the eggs, & get to bed, God bless you all.

Mother.

Sunday noon -

Dear Kirby! -

All well & sure busy as can be. Things going very nicely. Chickens doing fine & selling cream now - only a little now, until the other 2 cows are fresh - one in June & one in July. Then should do pretty good.

Have a little heifer calf from the 2 year old heifer now - (the one you & Mother took over to Bullocks while you were here last July, remember.)

So have 3 cows & 3 heifers

now & Wile get 2 more calves, this year - Wile get 5 calves next year - So you can see what the increase Wile mean for us.

Also when get to making 5-next year - Wile sure be able to see the cream then.

Crank Shaft on my Ford broke about 2 weeks ago so while they had engine down & overhauling had new rings set - put in.

Total 32<sup>75</sup> then a few Days later broke 4 leaves in spring in front - 1<sup>80</sup>

Friday had to have 2 plugs put in - 1<sup>50</sup> that with gas & oil all for gas set us back better than 40<sup>00</sup> right when we were getting ahead a little -

So she goes. However that all paid - Note at Bank paid long ago - And we begin to see a little daylight I believe. Sold my last bunch of chicks yesterday - Hatched 129 - Have saved all we hatched this year except 40 with 2 hens they are for fryers for us.

Have 2 machines set with 408 leghorn eggs now - for ourselves - When they hatch will set all 3 with 576 leghorns & then again all with leghorns 3 weeks later.

These are all for us - will save the pullet & sell cockerels as broilers.

Want to raise 2 or 300 pullets & as many as 500 if we can.
First ones will be laying by Nov 1st - Second bunch by ✓ 22nd & third bunch by Dec 10th - So should get eggs all winter without them moulting. Going to build one house for all my leghorns - fixed up right with Hoppers - nests - Water troughs roosts everything all inside.
Can keep them up in good weather & not hurt them - & they will keep on laying.

Will get mostly scrap lumber at mill - buy only good 2 x 4. for the frame work.
More about that later.

Mr. Hays has in about 8 acres of cotton for me up now & looking fine - make 4 bales say, Will give me 1 - good year may make 5 or 6 bales.
I get  $\frac{1}{4}$  &  $\frac{1}{4}$  of seed also.
maybe bring us 100<sup>00</sup> (possibly more) Hope so - figuring on that for 100<sup>00</sup> for you & feel sure

Will add more before the year is out - depends on it that we will do our best - Will have to make the additions for chickens for will have around 6 or 700 if nothing happens.

All I can say is wait until next year & then watch our smoke sure enough.

Having our first blackberries today - made into cobbler & served with fresh cream.
English peas & new potatoes - green onions - Lettuce & Mayhaw Jelly - Hot fuscato & Veal Stead

milk & coffee. How does that Sound. Interval —

Oh, Boy, just back from that Dinner & did I hear Wee Does a Duck Swim?
Glad all are well there & everything O.K. Orval, Edith's Brother at K.C. - wrote that he met you & heard you speak - Complimented you very highly. Write us when you can & remember we are sure working & will do all we can - haven't been anywhere - either of us for a year now. Love to all your Bro, 'D.L.

Sunday night May 6th

Dear Alma, your nice long letter was gladly rec'd yes I was glad to hear about little Ruby maybe you can guard against such attacks in future - & its fine about their music, we had another Warther - & had to keep fire for two nights however we have none tonight - I never heard anything worth while over the Radio today, except the Joy makers from Ford Warth - sing & play Sacred music for one hour - its always good, daytime music is almost as loud now, as night time used to be,
I am so proud of the speaker,
we get home from church about one fifteen.

the Bus leaves Tuffin at one, so we have more than half an hour to wait, as services are over a little after twelve, we have four blocks to walk - so we usually wait in the Church until near time for the Bus,
the garden is looking fine, corn tending,
there are plenty peas, beans, beets, lettuce & turnips, & the strawberries made a few after all, eat them fresh, we will have no fruit to can this year unless we buy it. there were four rose bushes on the yard, white, yellow & two red - they have been loaded with lovely roses - & I have quite a few other plants, & bushes started, but it will be so long before they get much size, write me again & tell me what you can, Love to all Mother

Sunday night May 13 -

Dear People, we heard a fine sermon at Church today, on Mothers in general - I found two little white roses, so M - & I wore them - the Bus was a little late, & just as we were finishing dinner Perry & Edith came in with a freezer full of cream so we had to eat again, they also brought some blackberries for a pie & the Sunday papers, so we all had a very enjoyable afternoon, the hatchet seems to be buried again, &
I thank God for it.

I sent the Battery in to be charged & was to get it back yesterday, but they failed to send it, so I missed the good program for today; I certainly hope that Alma is recovering nicely from her operation - it's surely nice for Johnnie to be there with her.

Sister Moody brought us two more books to read, one is a religious discussion new the other an old book - but fine Tip & his lamp, is the title we have. lots of time these long days, Mrs Cox brought us a few May-hams, & I made jelly of them, the strawberries did better than we expected. so I have a few of them to preserve. there are eight little turkeys now too.

I love you all very much Mother

Friday Apr 27 -

Just think of it, we are sitting by the fire to day, cold outside, but we still hope things will not get killed, sun is coming and a little, Perry came up for a few minutes yesterday - says Leah's number is 507 Anita but he is going to move soon downstairs apr 2nd, too hard for M - & climb stairs where they are.
I was busy for two days working to get flowers started, & now comes the cold again, but thank God, we are much better off than most sections of the country. I know you are all having a great time up there now. better tell me something, Love Mother

Dear People, I must thank you for the good bag you sent me, its a beauty & I do appreciate your kindness all about the same with us - only now there are a few more fleas, red-bugs, & Mosquitoes, I pulled our Bermuda onion today we have been selling in bunches for a good while, but there are several knobby left biggest I ever saw, rats are taking the place, we tied them in bunches, & hung on the walls of the overland potato house, still a few sweet potatoes, strawberries never did as well as usual, but are still bearing, no there are no peaches this year, very few pears, one of the Delicious apple trees bloomed, - have lots of little cherry trees from the wood - of the duck turkey eggs one hatched, & two of the others have died, I hope to raise a few Perry & E. went to town this morning, fishing this afternoon, & said to play Gaily Mrs. tonight, there is a meeting going on at their place but they have only been twice, rarely ever go on Sunday, she groans for the folks, & he mourns incessantly D. has to bless me and every few weeks, she takes offense at me every thing I say to her, its not much I can tell you, but D.

has to take her part, to live it all, I say too much, pay no attention to me, & keep quiet.
I love you all,

Mother

Sunday night May 1st all well, remember Murray 12th, just a Birthday card

Best night -

Dear People - all,

I do not know if the awful flood is bothering any of our folk or not, but I do not think so.
I rec'd a letter from Lizzie last week & she never mentioned it.

We are getting some decent weather at last, nights still pretty cool.

P & I have gone to the river with a bunch to eat a fish supper we worked in field, & garden until late; have taken our bath, & are about ready to sleep, sure tired but thank God for a good dry place to sleep, just think of the thousands that terrible river has made homeless, worst disaster in history of N.O.A. God guide, & keep you

P. O. COLLEGE CAMP, WIS., Sunday evening

Dearest of mine:

Had a perfectly wonderful response to my sermon this morning. Will be busy continuously with meetings and interviews. It's a glorious privilege.

Never felt better in my life. The weather is beautiful beyond description.

It's great to be alive.

Heaps of love to all three!

P. O. COLLEGE CAMP, WIS., Tues A.M.

Dearest:

Had a simply glorious time at Geneva. They let me talk a lot!
Spoke four times and had many conferences and interviews. Drake had eight delegates. Professor Martin is going to the University of Iowa.
Howard Thurman and Miss Henthorn arrived all right.

I do hope the conference is going well and that you and the children are still having a grand time. Am writing Amy about the possibility of holding part of next year's conference at Geneva.

My cold still hangs on but is no worse. Will get a good rest on the train. The mountain air should do me good.

Take your time in getting back home. Enjoy the scenery enroute.

Ask the children to write me at Estes Park.

Heaps of love to you all

Ever & only yours

Dear Kirby:

Dec 28

I wish you a merry Christmas.

As we grow older we find how little material gifts can do, but the spiritual values abide. You have proved a loyal and true friend, as well as a splendid fellow worker.
I believe that the heart of the gospel lies in the giving of God and in the gift of Jesus to the world. May we receive the gift in growingly greater measure. I rejoice in you and your work and wish you and Alma & the family a happy Christmas

Pierwood

Enclose a little Christmas token.

Dear Kirby

This is just to wish you a happy Christmas and the best new year you have ever had. I rejoice at the way you are entering the opening doors of opportunity year by year and at all the great work you are doing.
It has been a joy to work with you all the years. I hope and pray that a double portion of the Christmas spirit may be ours in deeper measure than ever before

Wishing you a Merry Christmas

Ever affectionately

Pherwood.

Friday May 25—

Dear Kirby & Alma. & Kiddies

I have nothing worth talking about, we keep fairly well, & every thing going about the same way.

Alma I surely hope you are feeling all right again - I do not believe I have had a word from any of you since you were operated on - P. & E. - told me that Johnnie said so in her letter, may<sup>t</sup> I will hear tomorrow.

The hot dry weather is upon us - there are plenty vegetables, rooting ears now - & we are still getting some strawberries. Perry came with more blackberries, said he could not sell them, there are seventeen little turkeys now, & the hen is laying again, not much doing on the Pradis, older most of the time, I forgot to say I read the Mother's Day card, Love to all Mother

Thursday, May 18th

Kirby Dear, Perry has just left here, came to see how we were. He wanted us to go down one day next week, & pick blackberries, but I told him I would rather not go. We all know that Edith does not want to see me, or be where I am, she just comes up once in a great while to keep down talk, I told Perry I would do anything I could to help him along - but that it was not good for any of us for me to go there, he said did I want them to quit coming up. I said of course not, but he went away mad - & I am in for a spell of hysterics, & I can no more help it than I can help living Kirby I just cannot stand to see all my cherished possessions, going to waste all that I worked so hard for years to accomplish, all gone to some one that does not appreciate, or thank me for any thing. He never has of course, you will say I am all wrong all right, God only knows what I have taken, & given, I was getting a little more reconciled - & now I am torn all to pieces again, it would be better if I could go way off some where, but Murry is not capable of handling any business any more than I am & we would just be worse off than ever every thing is green & pretty. but if I take my head out doors there is a pack of men gazing, I sit here & eat, guess I will soon weigh two hundred - no I never heard the N.Y. program you mentioned, but have heard lots of good ones and there

Houston Tex

Dear Alma

I guess you got my letter telling you about Dad being sick, he was in the Hospital one week and one day, he is getting along fine now - will go to work Monday.

he is cleaning the back yard of some of the grass now - you see I had my hands full while he was in the hospital I had a man here going over the wood work and had to work so hard to try to keep the dust down, at last that is all finished and have the curtain up at last have not finished the floors yet. guess I will do that next week,

I took I in to the dr yesterday also had to see the eye
dr but when they get through I felt too bad to have my eyes tested so will have to go back Monday, I in is getting along very well only she is too fat

the dr tells her not to eat too much but I do not think she pays much attention to him. her mother said that she was fat and it was not so hard on her, you see you can not tell as every body is not built just alike, I got so hungry to see Ruby yesterday, a man came in the office while we were there, he had Ruby's build just about his size even his fat-faced like his all except his eyes and they were brown he had that pleasing smile

he seemed so <sup>4</sup> friendly and nice his hair looked more like Fritz's now he looks when it was only it just made me feel like I had seen him and did not get to speak to him. Llew was up to see her dad when he was sick also Budahie came down and staid a few days. He is coming back to night - he keeps one in eggs, now, strawberries are plentiful now we put up a crate. I just must get some dew berries to put up I mean to make jelly one had a pie Sunday.

<sup>5</sup> Tomorrow is Mother's day, I got such a nice little remembrance from Elizabeth and Fritz today.
Jennie wants me to go to church tomorrow I told her no I did not feel like going to church. Especially on another day as I feel like I have been a failure in being a mother to my children in some way. Walfred is so different - to what I tried so hard to make him. You know the last few years he has been going with a class of people & that - I do not like they are not the right kind he is getting away from some of them, I imagine he has been living a bad life for years and it just took I <sup>couldn't</sup> get over it - I did try so hard, but I failed some how.

I have got to fix dinner it is about time for Phemie to get off as today is Sat

I hope that you will enjoy morning, I guess, I guess Mame will move when you do I take so much love to all Lovingly Bertie.

Sunday 25, 1927

Dear Daddy,
Yesterday Kirby and I were climbing trees. In one tree, I found a cocoon. I took it to Sunday-school this morning.

We ate at the Automat on 59th street. We then walked from there to the Library. I fed the pigeons, some of them ate out of my hand. Then we took the bus and came home.

Friday, Miss Shilling, our Sunday-school teacher, came out to our house. We are going to visit the new church with her Saturday the 31st.

Kirby is getting along very nicely with his music.

We are all well and happy.

Your loving daughter Mary

Feb 24

Dear Kirby, we are shut in again with cold, two days now - but the Radio is a life saver - an Indian Chief is coming from Hudson toough. M. wants to hear him, Kirby Dear, we use to feel bad with me but I gave the Joe check to Perry. & this is the reason last summer when Perry put in his claim against the pipe line for damage, he also put in a back claim for us, & got 35 dollars I told him he might have all he could get Murray had refused to let me put in a claim and do you know he <sup>m</sup> took all that money, I made such a fuss, he gave back ten dollars to Perry, that was all I could get him to do. so I promised

do not need any money now

P- I would make it good just as soon as possible, & I have, I believe you will say right, must let you about it, but forget, we will not build any fish pond, we don't want it done.

I have fought for things until I am tired out, now I will just drift about, & started another old quilt to you yesterday, insured each of them for $5.00 & hope you get them safe.

now what kind shall I make for you & Mary, I believe a three lb comfort is about all I could make now, have just finished one, & will start another soon.

Pat, solid in in basket this morning Love to all - Mother

Dear Kirby:

Your letter of the 24th
has just reached me here.
I am immeasurably grateful for your wanting me in that series of articles, and I shall be delighted to do my best for you on simple living.

It is good to hear of the success you are having in putting "Recent Sains" into book form.... I do so want to hear of your western trip.... My own present college work seems to be going in good shape.

Love to all the Pages.

ROCK ISLAND LINES

EN ROUTE

Dear Kirby

I have just read your chapter on the Cross etc.
apart from details 3 criticisms suggest themselves

1. The abrupt, sensational style of 2 word sentences without a verb does not strike me as fitting for the historical subject.
Periodicals and a few verbs would help.

2. Much more serious is your brief, casual and utterly inadequate treatment of the meaning of the Cross which one might assume would be the heart & center of the book.

At present it is brief, brief and unilluminating (ham straining)

You will have a lot of useful material on the dark chapters on the Crusades Inquisition etc. But nothing can make up for lack on this section. No 5. on the Meaning of Cross should take about the space of this whole chapter. You pass over the great principle "Let that saveth loath" with a single brief verse of scripture, without even a paraphrase. No interpretation, no philosophy. No thought on it. Nothing! It is almost unthinkable. <sup>It is almost</sup> ~~It is almost~~ the same on the meaning of the cross.

You ought to spend hard thoughts on this. If you can't think your way through get Rinnies help.

You have not a new thought on this section.

We deeply need a rational, modern re-interpretation of the cross.

principally sacrifice. He that sacrifice I thought you were going to do this. I beg of you don't omit or side-step it.

3. There are of course too many quotations I could rewrite half of them in my own words. There is excuse for a Jewish authority like Klausner but not much for many such as the Case quotations.

This chapter is good save its omission of the crucial part of it.

Forgive my rapid criticism affectionately

Herwood

Of course I quote far more & worse than you do.

In a period of propaganda for and against almost every cause, and in view of the frequent misrepresentation of the position of anyone dealing with present-day problems, may I state my own position? It will be found briefly outlined on the enclosed card (which is never passed for signature) and amplified in my pamphlet, "Religion and Social Justice." Among other things I stand for the following five-fold practical application of the Christian gospel, personal and social:

1. To live simply and sacrificially.
2. To practice brotherhood toward all.
3. To make peace where there is strife; seeking to outlaw war, and substituting a positive program of international justice and goodwill.
4. To redeem the social order, replacing its evils by the patient building of the Kingdom of God on earth by spiritual means.
5. To rediscover the religion of Jesus in greater fullness and power as the deepest need of our own day.

In my message to students I challenge them to maintain no relations with their fellows, men or women, which violate absolute purity or debase the divine value of personality. I have been forced to deal with sex problems by the serious and growing need among students today. My position is stated in "Religion and Social Justice", pages 68 to 86, and will be further amplified in "Sex and Youth", ready by March 1928.

I do not believe in a vain taboo of silence on these difficult subjects, but advocate sane sex education in the home, school and college, given as a normal, natural part of life. I would seek to avoid both the danger of a too-repressive puritanism on the one hand, and on the other of the pagan promiscuity of sensual and selfish sex gratification at present threatening some of our youth under the guise of "petting". I have never endorsed nor believed in trial marriage and would repudiate "free love" in every form. I believe in monogamic marriage and the Christian home as the foundation of society. I believe that a return to Jesus' way of life is the deepest need of the world today.

Fellowship
for a Christian Social Order

I

This Fellowship binds together for mutual counsel, inspiration, and co-operation, men and women who are seeking to effect fundamental changes in the spirit and structure of the present social order through loyalty to Jesus' way of life.

II

We believe that the deepest human fellowship has its necessary basis in fellowship with God as He is revealed in Jesus.

III

We believe that according to the life and teaching of Jesus, the supreme task of mankind is the creation of a social order, the Kingdom of God on earth, wherein the maximum opportunity shall be afforded for the development and enrichment of every human personality; in which the supreme motive shall be love; wherein men shall co-operate in service for the common good and brotherhood shall be a reality in all of the daily relationships of life.

IV

We must, therefore, endeavor to transform such unchristian attitudes and practices as now hinder fellowship: extravagant luxury for some, while many live in poverty and want; excessive concentration of power and privilege as a result of vast wealth in the hands of a few; monopoly of natural resources for private gain; autocratic control of industry by any group; production for individual profit and power rather than for social use and service; arrogance and antagonism of classes, nations and races; war, the final denial of brotherhood.

V

We believe that in the spirit and principles of Jesus is found the way of overcoming these evils, and that within the Christian Church there should be a unity of purpose and endeavor for the achieving of a Christian social order. By means of fellowship in thought and prayer we come to understand the point of view of those who differ from us, make possible new discoveries of truth, and aid one another in the solution of common problems. We believe that social changes should be effected through educational and spiritual processes, especially by an open-minded examination of existing evils and suggested solutions, full discussion and varied experimentation. We pledge ourselves to vigorous activity in seeking by these means a solution of the social problems which we face.

VI

The Fellowship functions through personal contact, correspondence, group meetings and periodic conferences—local, sectional and national. Plans for action resulting from these conferences will, so far as possible, be carried out through existing organizations, or in some manner independent of the Fellowship, since its office is not administrative or legislative. The Fellowship does not plan to conduct classes, open forums, conferences or kindred activities for non-members, nor to pass resolutions of any sort or go on record as endorsing or disapproving any special program or practice.

VII

In our desire to avoid over-organization, the structure of the Fellowship has been made as simple as possible. There is a National Committee of 50 members, an Executive Committee of 20 members, an executive secretary, and a convener of each local group. The members of each group shall meet together from time to time without formal organization. The minimum of necessary expense is met by voluntary gifts.

VIII

Men and women who agree with the principles outlined herein, and who desire to co-operate with those of like mind and purpose, are invited to become members of the Fellowship for a Christian Social Order.

KIRBY PAGE'S ADDRESS HERE IS CALLED OFF

University "Y. W." Takes Action Following Request from President Trotter

CAUSED TOO MUCH TURMOIL

Strong Oppositon on Campus and Among Local Organizations Caused Cancellation

Kirby Page, editor of "The World Tomorrow," a liberal magazine, will not deliver an address here this week under the auspices of the Young Women's Christian Association of the University as had been scheduled because an executive request to the Y. W. C. A. authorities to cancel the engagement, was complied with.

President Frank B. Trotter yesterday confirmed the report that he had requested the "Y. W." to cancel the Page engagement here because it had resulted in "such turmoil on the campus" and in other quarters here. The American Legion post here and other organizations opposed his appearance. Dr. Trotter said that he had no knowledge of a telegram reported to have been sent here by Governor Howard Gore requesting tha the Page engagement be cancelled.

Among the "charges" against Page by those who opposed his appearance here are his advocacy of the abolition of war through concerted refusal of the Christian church and Christian church members to support war or participate in it; membership in the Fellowship of Reconciliation, alleged to be composed of members of the American Civil Liberties Union and Communist-controlled; recognition of Soviet Russia; transformation of the un-Christian attitudes which make possible the extremes of luxury and poverty; production for social use and service rather than for individual profit; opposition to military preparedness; admission that he is an absolute pacifist and his close association with "pronounced reds."

Students Are Divided

Marked opposition to the appearance here of Page has been manifested for the past 10 days and, according to the Athenaeum, the University campus newspaper, student factions were sharply divided. His address here was to have been upon the subject of "Intolerance."

Page was born in Texas in 1890 and received his collegiate degrees from Drake, University of Chicago, Columbia, and Union Theological Seminary. He is an ordained minister in the Disciples of Christ and has filled several pastorates. During the World War, he did Y. M. C. A. work in France and the British Isles and he has been engaged in evangelistic campaigns with Sherwood Eddy, the distinguished Christian worker among college men and women, in America, China, Japan, and Korea. Since 1921, Page has been lecturing and writing. He is the author of a number of books and pamphlets having large circulation and a former pastor of Christ Church in New York City. He is on a speaking tour of the country at the present time and is said to have delivered addresses to more than 200 institutions of higher learning during the past year.

A Hollow Victory—

It is a sad commentary upon any great institution of higher learning, such as West Virginia University, that it must throttle the public address of a man whose viewpoints even a majority of the faculty and undergraduates, to say nothing of organizations and groups outside the University, may not like.

Kirby Page is editor of "The World Tomorrow." Most of the precursors of tomorrow, in any generation, have been considered radicals. Because Mr. Page writes and preaches doctrines against military preparedness, in favor of pacifism, in defense of Soviet Russia and advocates certain socialistic doctrines which he conceives to harmonize with the Christian ministry that he has taken up, the bugaboo of redness is raised. Those who claim a monopoly upon patriotism and 100 percentism, demand that he be not permitted to speak under Y. W. C. A. auspices at the University. As the result of rather forceful urging from the protestants, the president of the University requested the concellation of his address here this week by the Y. W. C. A. authorities and it was done. Mr. Page is thus outlawed.

It is earnestly to be hoped that such a blundering and provincial mistake on the part of University authorities does not become too generally broadcast. For it is hardly more than the counterpart of Tennessee's recent debacle against evolution in its intolerance—a characteristic that should be far removed from centers of learning and study.

The New Dominion is frank to say that it has no sympathy with many of Kirby Page's viewpoints. But less than two weeks ago, a distinguished admiral of the United States navy presented the cause of preparedness from the convocation platform. That the same opportunity should be refused one who believes in pacifism and the outlawing of war would be farcical if it were not tragic.

These are the piping times of peace. American citizens have a right, constitutionally guaranteed, to their opinions and beliefs. To refuse Page the opportunity to be heard does not necessarily abridge his rights in this respect, but it does measure the abridged capacity of those who opposed him to countenance other viewpoints. Page's cause has been considerably exalted by the act.

The fact that the views of the self-styled 100 percenters cannot stand a little rostrum opposition is far more damaging than anything Mr. Page might have said. Nobody yet has ever crushed truth. If Mr. Page is wrong, his views will never prevail. If he is right, all the suppression in the world cannot kill their final victory.

No man ever took more rope than he could

THE NEW DOMIN

twirl and escaped self-hanging. Nevertheless, there still remain those who cannot trust their own intelligence to escape being hung by the harangue of that genus homo known as a "red."

Some 200 colleges and universities of the country have not been afraid to face Mr. Page's arguments. It is too bad that the guardians of West Virginia University's patriotism and loyalty felt that West Virginia's young men and young women lacked sufficient intelligence to cope with this platform "menace."

LOOKING FORWARD

THE World Tomorrow is "a journal looking toward a social order based on the religion of Jesus." It is a 48 paged monthly. In each issue there are six or eight articles on one general theme, thus making possible an adequate treatment. Each number also contains several articles on vital subjects other than the special theme for the month. Verse of high quality, genial humor, features for children, reviews of the best books only, and varied editorial interpretations of current tendencies and overlooked news—all these combine to add distinction to its pages.

Among the 51 contributors to our last three issues, other than our regular contributing editors were the following:

J. RAMSAY MACDONALD	CARRIE CHAPMAN CATT
L. P. JACKS	MAHATMA GANDHI
BRIG. GEN. L. R. GIGNILLIAT	HAROLD LASKI
HARRY A. OVERSTREET	JAMES T. SHOTWELL
GEORGE ALBERT COE	RAYMOND B. FOSDICK
BRUCE BLIVEN	SAVEL ZIMAND
HERBERT ADAMS GIBBONS	JAMES G. McDONALD
DOROTHY CANFIELD FISHER	ARNOLD WOLFERS
FRANCIS P. MILLER	GRACE LOUCKS
HUBERT C. HERRING	MALCOLM W. WILLEY
HENRY RAYMOND MUSSEY	WM. I. HULL
LOUIS UNTERMAYER	LOUISE ATHERTON DICKEY

WHAT THEY TELL US

John Dewey, Columbia University

It seems almost superfluous to express any words of commendation for The World Tomorrow. It occupies a place of its own and performs a service not undertaken by any other of the liberal journals. Its concentration in each number upon some special topic, the different phases of which are treated by competent authorities, makes each issue enlightening, and more than usually worthy of preservation for permanent reference.

Harry Emerson Fosdick, Union Theological Seminary

I am happy to associate myself with those who are interested in the fortunes of The World Tomorrow. The World Tomorrow, under Mr. Page's editorship, is sure to be illuminating and stimulating, and while the journal will ask no one to agree with all it says, it will undoubtedly, if properly supported, wield a wide influence for forward-looking policies on national and international affairs.

Mary E. McDowell, Illinois League of Women Voters and University of Chicago Settlement

It seems to me your stunning November issue "Toward a Constructive Foreign Policy," would be just the kind of literature to give these women. It is a remarkable and most timely edition and I am perfectly delighted with it.

I am delighted with the work you are doing. In a world which can only go forward on faith and which was bled white of its faith by the punitive peace that followed a futile war, you are injecting faith into an anemic world. Good luck to you in your work.

Albert F. Coyle, Editor, Locomotive Engineers' Journal

I am devoutly glad to see The World Tomorrow appear in enlarged form. It is one of the few magazines I take time to read religiously because I believe its message of peace and good will is the most critically needed antidote for the strife and bitterness shrouding the world today. The last two issues have been truly monumental and comprise an invaluable contribution toward international understanding and the preservation of democracy.

John R. Mott, General Secretary, National Board of the Y. M. C. A., New York City

While at times I do not find myself in accord with the positions taken by The World Tomorrow, I find this periodical arresting, forward-looking, courageous, and constructive. It also stands ready to modify its positions and statements in the light of new evidence.

E. A. Ross, University of Wisconsin

The World Tomorrow is earnest, gallant, humorous, disinterested, untainted—the sort of thing for a man of intelligence and humanity. It stands for the old American idealism and is a marvelous "debunker." It is to one venturing among our propaganda-filled newspapers what the box of quinine tablets is to the dweller in a malaria district.

L. S. Treadwell, Associate Editor, Scientific American

The October issue of The World Tomorrow is being passed around our Editorial staff and has provoked much favorable comment.

James H. Maurer, President, Pennsylvania Federation of Labor

The World Tomorrow, more than any other journal I know of, combines the qualities of courage, intelligence, honesty, and broad human sympathy.

Frederick Lynch, Secretary, The Church Peace Union

I do not know when I have picked up a paper with a series of more valuable articles in it than this. Go on with the good work!

Mrs. Helen B. Montgomery, Rochester, N. Y.

I value The World Tomorrow very highly. I do not always agree with it, but it is always stimulating and informing. I trust its honesty and its fairness.

Beresford Gale, Beresford Gale Investment Corporation, Philadelphia

The World Tomorrow strikes a new note in high-class journalism. The inspiration to agree with or refute these articles is in itself a striking evidence of the interest one finds in them; then again the range of subject matter dealt with comprises an education in itself, so that after a session with The World Tomorrow one generally puts down the paper with the feeling of a well stocked brain.

Fred B. Smith, Chairman, World Alliance for International Friendship Through the Churches

Permit me to congratulate you heartily upon the splendid work being done through The World Tomorrow. You are giving us one of the best interpretations of the international question. It is just splendid.

Irving Maurer, President, Beloit College

The World Tomorrow is really a great publication. I like the centering of its discussions in one topic and the numbers are really a symposium on important subjects.

Irving Fisher, Professor, Yale University

As long as The World Tomorrow is open to all views and its main purposes agree approximately with those which I have at heart, I most cordially approve of its work as a beneficent one for the future improvement of mankind.

G. Bromley Oxnam, Clergyman, Los Angeles

The recent issues of The World Tomorrow have proved to be the most valuable contributions coming to my desk. The contributors are world authorities. Their treatment of themes has been objective, and underlying the entire work one feels the sincere desire to arrive at the truth. The magazine seems to me to fill a much needed place. It is the finest interpretation of the ideals of Jesus, in relation to the major problems of the day, that I know.

Rev. John A. Ryan, National Catholic Welfare Conference

I frequently disagree with opinions and policies which find expression in The World Tomorrow. Nevertheless, I regard the magazine as very useful to students of international affairs, particularly to those who are striving for international peace. The articles are always direct and positive; they are never dull or hesitating.

S. Parkes Cadman, President, The Federal Council of Churches

I have read your paper and desire its increased circulation. It relies on facts, reasons and a decent regard for the cooperation and approval of outside nations. I trust it will have the patronage of all visioned citizens who anticipate and prepare for the conditions which must prevail, cost what they may, if our civilization is to be preserved and augmented for good.

S. Ralph Harlow, Smith College

THE EDITORS

Mr. Kirby Page, Editor, has written eight books and an equal number of pamphlets, of which more than half a million copies have been circulated. One or more of his books have been translated and published in France, Germany, Holland, Denmark, Sweden, Bulgaria, India, China and Japan. ## AT THIS TIME OF CRISIS

AT NO period in the history of this country have we been in greater need of thoughtful consideration of the trends of the time. The forces of reaction are dominant in our political and economic life. Corruption and lawlessness are widespread. Intolerance is abroad in the land. Old standards of morals are being abandoned and perilous experiments inaugurated. The home is seriously menaced. Jingoists are creating a dangerous type of extreme nationalism. Imperialists are getting their roots down deeper and deeper in backward countries. Militarists are more active than ever before. And, most menacing of all, the vast proportion of our population are uninformed and indifferent to the complex social problems of the day. When economic, political and social problems are going unsolved because the great mass of our people are uninformed. The World Tomorrow is devoting its whole energies to meeting the need for reliable, timely and adequate material.

WHITHER CIVILIZATION?

A TOTAL of 125,732 persons paid nearly two million dollars to see Jack Dempsey walk off with $700,000 as the loser's share in the big bout. Hundreds of millions are spent each year upon prize fights, wrestling matches, horse races and other sporting events. Sensational newspapers and periodicals are reaping a rich harvest by appealing to the coarser and baser impulses of their readers.

Yet in this same civilization, serious-minded journals are engaged in a ceaseless struggle for contributions and subscriptions. Indeed, several very sad funerals have recently occurred in their ranks. No periodical that deals fearlessly with the vital issues of the day can hope to continue publication unless generously supported by its friends.

At no period in the history of this country have we been in greater need of thoughtful consideration of the trends of the time. The forces of reaction are dominant in our political and economic life. Corruption and lawlessness are widespread. Intolerance is abroad in the land. Divorces are increasing rapidly and the home is seriously menaced. Old standards of morals are being abandoned and perilous experiments inaugurated. Jingoists are creating a dangerous type of extreme nationalism. Imperialists are getting their roots down deeper and deeper in backward countries. Militarists are more active than ever before. And, most menacing of all, the vast proportion of our population are uninformed and indifferent to the complex social problems of the day. And so we ask, Whither civilization?

The World Tomorrow

The World Tomorrow is "a journal looking toward a social order based on the religion of Jesus." It is a 48 paged monthly. In each issue there are from six to ten articles on one general theme, thus making possible an adequate treatment. As a rule, each number contains five or six articles on vital subjects other than the special theme for the month. A continuous search is being made for poems of quality and value. An Oncomers' Page each month is devoted to contributions by and on behalf of wide-awake boys and girls. The Editor contributes two pages each month under the caption, Building Tomorrow's World. The Executive and Literary Editor comments upon current events under the title, A Window on the Street; while the Managing Editor helps the reader to avoid overlooking significant items Not in the Headlines. Other special features are provided.

Policy

Characteristics to which we aspire are accuracy of statement, comprehensiveness of data, superiority of quality, attractiveness of style, frankness of speech, and fearlessness of treatment. This is a journal of religion and we shall seek to examine various aspects of current problems and to consider proposed solutions in the light of the matchless teaching and unequalled life of Jesus of Nazareth. Because we believe in the God of Jesus and accept his appraisal of human nature, we shall from time to time propose certain courses of action which may appear to some of our contemporaries as the height of impracticability, but which to us seem the only pathway to richer and fuller life for humanity.

The Editors

Mr. Kirby Page, Editor, has written eight books and an equal number of pamphlets, of which more than half a million copies have been circulated. One or more of his books have been translated and published in France, Germany, Holland, Denmark, Sweden, Bulgaria, India, China and Japan. He has traveled widely in Europe and Asia, and has spoken in all sections of the United States.

Mr. Devere Allen, Executive and Literary Editor, has been one of the editors of the World Tomorrow for four years. Formerly he was secretary of The Young Democracy and editor of its publication, a pioneer journal of the youth movement in this country. He has spoken on social subjects before many types of audiences and has contributed articles to numerous periodicals.

Miss Agnes A. Sharp, Managing Editor, was for some time educational director of the National Child Welfare Association. She has had several years' experience in journalistic work and is a member of the National Council of Christian Associations.

Mr. H. C. Englebrecht, Assistant Editor, was formerly instructor of history in the University of Chicago. He is a remarkable linguist and student of world problems.

World Tomorrow Cooperators

A journal such as this cannot hope to be self-sustaining. Indeed it cannot even survive unless it receives the generous cooperation of many thoughtful friends. We feel justified, therefore, in appealing to you to become a World Tomorrow Cooperator by contributing from $5 to $500 annually toward our budget.

Exactly 41,708 persons each paid upwards of $22 to see Gene Tunney win.

Will you be one of 500 friends to contribute from $25 to $500 to the World Tomorrow?

SIX REASONS WHY!

Six reasons why you should subscribe for The World Tomorrow:

- 1 The series on Recent Gains in American Civilization in itself will be worth far more than the subscription price.
- 2 The series on Building Tomorrow's World will stimulate your thought and quicken your imagination.
- 3 Nowhere else can you find so comprehensive a discussion of a given topic in the light of religious ideals and principles.
- 4 The miscellaneous articles and editorials will help you more accurately to interpret international, economic, racial, and political questions.
- 5 No other publication offers this combination: the religious approach, concentration on a single problem, coupled with the presentation of supplementary material on a variety of subjects.
- 6 The subscription price is only two dollars per year—less than the cost of one good book!

In addition , , , ,

A GROUP OF ARTICLES ON

VITAL RELIGION

CHRISTIAN religion is one of the major subjects for study and discussion by THE WORLD TOMORROW. This is a journal looking toward a social order based on the religion of Jesus. Under the caption "Building Tomorrow's World" we have published an article each month which has examined one definite phase and application of the religion of Jesus.

In all parts of the world there is a renewed interest in religious literature. There is a need for interpretations by this generation. To meet this need we have asked students of Christian living to write for us during the coming year. We are glad to be able to announce that ten well known Christian leaders have promised to write articles for us. To this list given below will be added through the year others who will give fresh discussions of the fundamental principles of Jesus' teachings.

Francis J. McConnell

Bishop, Methodist Episcopal Church, Pittsburgh; editor, Outline of Christianity.

Richard Roberts

Canadian preacher; author of The New Man and the Divine Society, etc.

Charles W. Gilkey

Pastor, Hyde Park Baptist Church, Chicago; Barrows Lecturer to India.

Sherwood Eddy

World traveller and lecturer; Author of New Challenges to Faith, etc.

Reinhold Niebuhr

Detroit minister; Contributing Editor of The Christian Century.

Maude Royden

One of England's most popular preachers; author of Beauty in Religion, etc.

Harry F. Ward

Professor, Union Theological Seminary; author of The New Social Order, etc.

Halford Luccock

Contributing Editor, The Christian Advocate; author of The Haunted House, etc.

Adelaide Case

Professor Religious Education, Columbia; author of As Modern Writers See Jesus.

Jerome Davis

Professor, Yale Divinity School; Editor of Business and the Church.

We are announcing these two notable series of articles in advance for several reasons. We want you to know at once that these will begin to appear with the first fall number so that you will not miss one. We believe you will not only renew your own subscription before you go away for the summer, but will send in subscriptions for your friends who will want to follow these discussions. We suggest a year's subscription as an unusual commencement and birthday gift. We hope you will give this advance announcement your imaginative thought and tell others of the good things to come in THE WORLD TOMORROW.

THE TOPICAL PLAN

Each month sixteen pages are devoted to articles on various phases of a single topic, thus making possible a comprehensive and well rounded treatment. The special issues for the coming months are:

September	Social Ideas and Modern Literature
October	Concentration of Economic Power
November	Barriers to International Organization
December	Myths and Shams
January	Youth and the New Social Order
February	Freedom in the United States
March	The Future of the Church
April	Financial Aspects of Our Foreign Policy
May	Prohibition and Politics

NON-TOPICAL ARTICLES

Each number also contains several miscellaneous articles, three pages of editorials, four pages of book reviews, verse of high quality, a collection of significant news items under the title, Not-In-The-Headlines, etc. Among the non-topical articles which will appear in forthcoming issues are:

If Asia Becomes Industrialized and Militarized Is Henry Ford a Blessing or a Curse?
Idolatry of the Constitution International Control of Raw Materials
The Family Wage System
Sex Stimulation in Modern Life
How Our Millionaires Got That Way Economic Conditions in Germany
What is Free Education?
The Arbitration Record of the U. S. A.
Negroes and the Minority Problem Nationalism in Education Is Labor Becoming Capitalistic?
What About Birth Control?
Depreciation of the Human Machine
The Human Costs of Rubber Tires
The Future of Christian Missions
What Has Gandhi Done for India?
Do Foreigners Get Justice in the United States?
Is Calvin Coolidge a Socialist?

John Dewey, Columbia University

It seems almost superfluous to express any words of commendation for The World Tomorrow. It occupies a place of its own and performs a service not undertaken by any other of the liberal journals. Its concentration in each number upon some special topic, the different phases of which are treated by competent authorities, makes each issue enlightening, and more than usually worthy of preservation for permanent reference.

The World Tomorrow is earnest, gallant, humorous, disinterested, untainted—the sort of thing for a man of intelligence and humanity. It stands for the old American idealism and is a marvelous “debunker.” It is to one venturing among our propaganda-filled newspapers what the box of quinine tablets is to the dweller in a malaria district.

Helen Martin, Wingfield, Kansas

I have no other reason for discontinuing my subscription to The World Tomorrow than that my future address is uncertain. I like the magazine and have used it extensively in my sociology classes this winter as a means to securing more than a single view point for current social problems. I shall renew my subscription later.

Albert F. Coyle, Editor, Locomotive Engineers' Journal

I am devoutly glad to see The World Tomorrow appear in enlarged form. It is one of the few magazines I take time to read religiously because I believe its message of peace and good will is the most critically needed antidote for the strife and bitterness shrouding the world today.

Henry H. Crane, Centre Methodist Episcopal Church, Malden, Mass.

.....“This publication fills a great need in the periodical world, and I have no hesitancy in saying that it is rapidly becoming virtually indispensable to me. It takes up what I conceive to be the most pressing issues of the day and handles them with fairness and fearlessness. Distinctly enough, it edits each issue with a single aim. This I like. Instead of trying to sweep over the whole field of public affairs with a single gesture, it points with directness at the significant spots which most need to be noticed; and, fortunately, one at a time, so that the reader is able to get a clear conception of the issue involved without having it blurred too readily with innumerable other matters pressing for recognition.”....

I am delighted with the work you are doing. In a world which can only go forward on faith and which was bled white of its faith by the punitive peace that followed a futile war, you are injecting faith into an anemic world. Good luck to you in your work.

"Ere the Community Is Burned"

"WILL the editor of THE WORLD TOMORROW say that Socialism is quite a different thing than Communism?" asks Mr. Fred R. Marvin, Editor of the Daily Data Sheet of The Key Men of America. He then answers his own question: "Socialism and Communism are one and the same thing so far as objectives are concerned. . . Socialism is Communism and Communism is Socialism." His authority for this statement is a quotation from Morris Hillquit. Mr. Marvin's inquiry is the outgrowth of our recent editorial on the Fort Wayne case, where two Y. W. C. A. secretaries were forced to resign because of membership in the Fellowship of Reconciliation. The original charge against these young women was that in being members of the F. O. R. they were affiliated with a communist-controlled organization. We produced evidence that only one communist has membership on any of the governing committees of the Fellowship.

Both communism and socialism have many different meanings. The early Christians of Jerusalem were communists. "The believers all shared everything they had with one another, and sold their property and belongings, and divided the money with the rest, according to their special needs." The Bolsheviks of Russia are also communists. Yet in many fundamental respects these two groups differ as widely as the poles. Socialism likewise has different meanings. There is much truth in the statement made by a conservative some decades ago: "We are all socialists now." The government printing office is a socialistic enterprise.

Communists believe in state operation of post offices and in public schools; most capitalists do also: therefore, capitalists are communists. If this is valid reasoning then it is easy to prove that communism and socialism are identical. Every group on earth has much in common with every other group. Socialism and communism are agreed on many points, just as communism and capitalism have much in common. If by a communist is meant a person who is a member of the Communist Party or in sympathy with its objectives and tactics, and a socialist is a person who is a member of the Socialist Party, or in sympathy with its objectives and tactics, then it is utterly false to say that a socialist and a communist are the same. As a matter of fact, communists are debarred from membership in the socialist parties of the United States, England, Germany, and many other countries. Morris Hillquit, Ramsay MacDonald, and other socialist leaders are hated and anathematized by Moscow as bitterly as are Calvin Coolidge and Stanley Baldwin. Most of the leaders of the old party in Russia which most nearly corresponds with the socialist party of this country are in jail or in exile. There is undying enmity between the Third (Communist) International and the Second (Socialist) International. The reasons for this hostility are apparent when one examines the platform of the Communist Party. Three of its main planks are, (1) the violent overthrow of capitalism, (2) the dictatorship of the proletariat, (3) propaganda on behalf of a violent world revolution. Socialist parties reject all three and rely upon change by parliamentary and other peaceful methods.

To the contention that communism and socialism are alike because both are opposed to the present capitalist system, we would simply point out that so is the religion of Jesus. But this does not make the latter identical with communism. For centuries Christians have been praying, "Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth." Each time we pray this prayer we are praying that the capitalist system may be changed, for it is beyond question that when the Kingdom of God comes on earth, it will not resemble the present economic order, with all its greed, cruelty, strife, and warfare. It is one thing to seek to modify the existing social system by peaceful means and quite a different thing to advocate the use of violence.

The Fellowship of Reconciliation is not a socialist organization. Some of its members are socialists but the majority are not. The F. O. R. is committed to Jesus' way of life and consequently is seeking to change those aspects of the present social order which are in violation of his spirit and teaching. The chief characteristic of the Fellowship is its devotion to the principle of overcoming evil with good and its utter repudiation of violence, both in international and in industrial relations.

Yet it is of the Fellowship of Reconciliation Mr. Marvin is speaking when he says: "Sound, loyal American citizens see in this movement something that must be scotched ere the community is burned."

It may be well to remember that this same Mr. Marvin once wrote eloquently in defense of Mr. E. L. Doheny, of Tea Pot Dome fame. In The New York Commercial, November 26, 1926, Mr. Marvin said: "But in Washington the very reputation of a patriotic citizen is at stake. The record of the man is as clean as a hound's tooth. He is the victim of a gigantic international conspiracy carried on in the United States through the aid of many who do not understand what they are doing. Emotion produced by the cry of the Pacifist has dulled our senses to national loyalty. They have fallen for the vicious propaganda of the Internationalists—or, shall we call them, Socialists and Communists? If legal or diplomatic red tape prevents the true facts being brought out in Washington, if the agents of foreign governments are stronger than our own, if a man who has devoted a fortune to aiding the nation is to suffer, then indeed is the situation serious." The situation was serious indeed, so much so that the nine radicals on the bench of the United States Supreme Court by a unanimous decision convicted Fall and Doheny of "conspiracy, corruption, and fraud."

TOO GOOD TO MISS

The visit of Kirby Page, well-known author and lecturer on economic, political and social problems to St. Louis should result in a larger general interest in the study of such problems, in a clearer understanding of the vital issues involved and in the serious determination on the part of Christian citizens to use all their influence and energies, in the spirit of Jesus Christ, to set right what is wrong in human life today.

Mr. Page will be in St. Louis from Sunday, February 20, to Wednesday, February 23, inclusive. On Sunday his program is as follows:

11:00 A. M., Second Presbyterian Church, Taylor and Westminster Pl., regular morning service.

4:00 P. M., Mass meeting, North Side Y. M. C. A., Grand and Sullivan Aves.

8:00 P. M., St. Peter's Evangelical Church, St. Louis and Warne Aves., Brotherhood and Women's Union mass meeting.

Be sure to attend one of these meetings. Bring your friends.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be devoted to conferences and discussions with various groups of interested men and women of different walks of life.

Mr. Page has travelled widely in Europe and Asia and has spoken in all sections of the United States. He is the author of many thought-provoking books and pamphlets, of which more than a half million copies have been circulated. Some of this literature, with other helpful material, will be obtainable at the places where he speaks on Sunday.

THE WORLD TOMORROW

A MONTHLY JOURNAL LOOKING TOWARD A SOCIAL

ORDER BASED ON THE RELIGION OF JESUS

Kirby Page, Editor

At This Time of Crisis

At no period in the history of this country have we been in greater need of thoughtful consideration of the trends of the time. The forces of reaction are dominant in our political and economic life. Corruption and lawlessness are widespread. Intolerance is abroad in the land. Old standards of morals are being abandoned and perilous experiments inaugurated. The home is seriously menaced. Jingoists are creating a dangerous type of extreme nationalism. Imperialists are getting their roots down deeper and deeper in backward countries. Militarists are more active than ever before. And, most menacing of all, the vast proportion of our population are uninformed and indifferent to the complex social problems of the day. When economic, political and social problems are going unsolved because the great mass of our people are uninformed, The World Tomorrow is devoting its whole energies to meeting the need for reliable, timely and adequate material for study and discussion.

Such a journal, in the nature of the case, cannot depend on advertising as a source of income, nor is it likely that a sufficient circulation is immediately available to make it self-supporting. To insure its existence as a fearless spokesman for Truth, Righteousness and Justice in all human affairs and relationships an adequate endowment is an absolute necessity. The following gifts are necessary to enable the editors to publish the only kind of a journal which is worthy of its readers:

100 .....	from $100 to $500
100 .....	from $ 25 to $100
100 .....	from $ 10 to $ 25
200 .....	from $ 5 to $ 10

Continued publication of The World Tomorrow depends on the response of friendly supporters. We are confident that many of those who hear Mr. Page will want to meet this request to the limit of their ability. If you can contribute at once it will help most; but a pledge payable within the year will mean almost as much. Checks or pledges may be sent to

KIRBY PAGE TO SPEAK TONIGHT IN LOCAL HALL

Students Ask Him to Make Address Under Their Auspices
—He Wires Acceptance

USE COMMUNITY BUILDING

President Trotter Denies Outside Influence Led to Cancellation of "Y. W." Date

Kirby Page, editor of "The World Tomorrow," whose address here this week under auspices of the University Young Women's Christian Association was cancelled at the request of President Trotter after protest had been entered from several local sources, will speak here tonight at 8 o'clock in the Community Building.

Acting upon what they believed to be the sentiment of a large number of University undergraduates and faculty members, a group of students, headed by S. Roger King, of Jackson county, this state, a senior in the college of arts and sciences, wired Page explaining the circumstances of the cancellation and asking him to speak under their auspices at the downtown auditorium.

Page wired King immediately, accepting the invitation and announcing that he would arrive here at 11:22 this morning over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. The New York editor is expected to be a guest of the Forum club of the University at noon today and to speak this evening at 8 o'clock. The subject of his address under Y. W. C. A. auspices was to have been "Intolerance" and it is presumed he will speak upon that topic this evening. His telegram, received here yesterday afternoon, said:

New York, Nov. 9, Arriving Morgantown 11:22 Thursday noon stop. Am willing to pay my own travelling expenses.

KIRBY PAGE.

Despite Mr. Page's offer to pay his own expenses, Mr. King, in charge of local arrangements, said that an admission fee of 50 cents would be charged to cover cost of renting the Community Building auditorium and other expenses incident to the address.

Seeks Fair Play.

"I represent no organization or no group of persons," said King last night when asked how he had come to wire Page. "But several of us students talked the matter over and I know that the suppression of his appearance here under auspices of a University organization in no wise represents a majority viewpoint of students and faculty. I do not know that a majority agree with Mr. Page or that many even know what his views are. Personally, I do not know. But we cannot believe that the University undergraduates are unwilling that he should be given an opportunity to be heard."

President Frank B. Trotter again denied categorically last night reports that influence from prominent men throughout the state had been used to secure request from the president to the Y. W. C. A.

No Outside Influence.

"No persons from outside of the city of Morgantown have discussed Mr. Page's appearance here with me nor have any of the persons who did discuss the matter made reference to any officials or persons outside of Morgantown," said President Trotter last night. "I was approached by representatives of the American Legion, the Daughters of the American Revolution, and one public official who is a resident of this city. No requests or hints of any kind from anywhere inside or outside the state, except in Morgantown, came to me concerning Page's lecture at the University. The request for cancellation was made solely because it seemed that too much turmoil had been created about it."

S. Roger King, the University senior who wired Mr. Page, said he had heard indirectly, prior to the University cancellation of Page's appearance, that attempts would be made to break up the meeting if Page appeared. After the cancellation, King said he had also overheard a remark by one student to the effect that Page's lecture would never be held.

At tonight's address, however, Mr. King said, every precaution will be taken to see that the speaker is accorded the courtesies due him. "I do not anticipate any rowdyism but every safeguard will be taken to prevent any. Arrangements are being made to see that perfect order is maintained. We simply want to give Mr. Page a chance to be heard that he ought to have from any group of respectable persons. We did not like the suppression of his speech so some of us decided to ask him to come anyhow. We do not know what he will say. We do not know whether we agree with him. But we certainly do not agree with the cancellation of his address merely because his reported views about war, Russia, and other questions of the day do not happen to agree with a few persons."

King said that he and other students merely held the viewpoint that a very small but active minority of students, aided by several local organizations, had brought about the pressure for the cancellation of Page's address, their activities being unknown to a large number of students until after they had accomplished their end. He said that a large proportion of the faculty and students were entirely willing and anxious to hear Page and indicated that had there been any general knowledge of all the circumstances, sentiment favorable to his appearance, or at least against cancellation of his address merely because of Page's viewpoints, would have been overwhelming. King, whose home is near Ripley, this state, lost a brother in the World war.

Page has spoken, it is said, at more than 200 colleges and universities of the country. He is said to be opposed to war, advocates the outlawing of it by refusal of Christian nations and Christian peoples to take part in war and is also said to favor recognition of Russia. Opposition to his appearance is predicated largely upon these views, it is said. He was formerly pastor of Christ Church in New York City, has toured this and other countries with Sherwood Eddy, noted Christian worker among college students, and is known as one of the strongest platform men and magazine editors of the present time.

It is understood that in addition to Legion members, the D. A. R. and other organizations, actives of the Ku Klux Klan of this city also sought to prevent Page's lecture here. It was reported last night that some effort would be made to prevent use of the Community Building auditorium for his address.
